NEW VIEWS!

Mr. Melvin Vaniman is now at the Volcano, where he hopes to get a photo which will do the subject justice. His wonderful photo of Honolulu, the largest direct photo ever made in the Islands, not to mention the smaller, but not less perfect pictures of the Paia, Waikiki Beach, etc., place him in the front rank of his profession. It is not unreasonable to expect equally good results from his present trip, which will include all points of interest between Honolulu and the Volcano.
When completed Messrs. King Bros., who are associated with Mr. Vaniman, will have a series of photos equal to anything made anywhere, and which will do more toward advertising the Islands than any other medium.
Part of the series are now ready and on sale at

WILL GO TO JURY

Motion to Instruct Denied in Peck Case.

KINNEY FINED FIFTY DOLLARS

Grand Jury Likely to Report To- day—Defendants Will Appeal in Kapiolani Case.

Judge Gear yesterday denied the motion of defendants in the case of Kapiolani Estate vs. E. Peck & Co. to take the case from the jury, and it is to be submitted this morning.

The evidence of plaintiff in rebuttal was concluded shortly after noon, following which defendants moved that a verdict be directed in their favor. They sought to have the plaintiffs estopped from setting up the deed of Kahoapulpi to King Kalakaua on the ground that the same deed was declared to be void in the case of Okui vs. J. A. Cummins, which was tried in April, 1892, before Judge Judd.

The court overruled the motion holding that the former judgment of the court had no effect upon the case at issue.

The jury was then excused until this morning, at which time the case will be argued and submitted.

An appeal to the Supreme Court will be taken by the defendants in the event of an adverse finding by the jury, on the law points presented in yesterday's argument. Until these questions are passed upon by the Supreme Court a continuance will be had in the other Kapiolani Estate cases, against W. R.
Castle as trustee and L. A. Thurston, the points involved being similar.

KINNEY PAYS FOR DELAY.

When court convened yesterday morning and had disposed of a few preliminary matters, the Kapiolani case was called. It was then found that W.
A. Kinney, counsel for the plaintiffs, was absent and his associate, J. L.
Kaulukou, declined to continue in his absence. After waiting in vain for the attorney's appearance, Judge Gear took a recess of ten minutes. In the meantime diligent search had been instituted for Mr. Kinney, but without avail, and strange stories of kidnapping, etc., were hinted at; particularly when his associate, Mr. McClanahan, appeared and informed the court that Mr. Kinney had started for the Judiciary building shortly after nine o'clock, nearly an hour previous.

Just as court and jurors were beginning to despair of his coming Mr. Kinney appeared, still unaware of the search that had been made for him.
Judge Gear opened court for a second time, and asked for an explanation.
Mr. Kinney stated that he had no intention of delaying the court, as he had expected his associate in the case to continue. He stated that he had been detained on other business and had no thought but that the trial was in progress, or of being disrespectful to the court.

Judge Gear imposed a fine of fifty dollars, saying that if it were a juror who had kept them waiting he would have been compelled to inflict punishment, and attorneys should be no less prompt, as they knew how heavy the court business is. Mr. Kinney stated that he knew his excuse was not a sufficient one and stood ready to pay the fine the court had imposed.

THE STEIGMAN ESTATE.

In the matter of the Steigman estate wherein the father of the deceased had made objection to the master's report upon J. A. Magoon's accounting as administrator, Mr. Bittling appeared and stated that they could make no legal objection to the filing of the report, and his client would seek redress by an action against Mr. Magoon. This is the case wherein both the father and mother of the deceased appeared before Judge Gear at different times, and created a scene in open court, by charging Magoon with fraud in connection with the administration. The report of the master exonerated him, but the heirs are not satisfied with the accounts as filed.

MURRAY VS. WHITE.

The case of Murray vs. White occupied the noon session of the Circuit Court. Plaintiff claims money from Hackman White alleged to be due for repairs to a brake belonging to defendant, and made over five years ago.
White put in a counterclaim. White was on the stand the greater part of the noon hour, and was both loud and forceful in his denunciation of the conduct of the plaintiff.

"This thing was fixed indelibly in my mind," said the witness when the plaintiff attempted to shake his testimony by a severe cross examination. "Why every time I get hot, I think of it."
"You mean that every time you thought of it you got hot," corrected the court. The case went over until today.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

The Grand Jury is expected to bring in a report today. It has been actively engaged for over a month and will no doubt report a number of indictments, all the cases in which no true bills were found having already been reported to the court. The jury may make some sensational finding relative to various public places visited, and institutions investigated.

COURT NOTES.

In the case of Enterprise Mhl Co. vs.

J. Wallace et al. judgment was entered for plaintiff for $275.48 with costs and interest. Judge Gear sustained the findings of Judge Dickey.

The case of A. J. Lopez vs. Manuel Honreco was discontinued.

The case of Henry Gehring and Chas.
Butzke vs. W. M. Campbell et al., a suit for plumber's bill, was dismissed.
A remittitur has been filed in the matter of the estate of Alina, remanding the case to the Circuit Court for further proceedings.

The appeal has been withdrawn in the case of H. R. Hitchcock vs. Lee Tong.
A bond of $3,000 has been filed by Ceell Brown, administrator of the estate of Wm. Keating.

A petition has been filed asking the appointment of E. R. Hendry as administrator of the estate of Daniel Ray.
His heirs are the widow and children, Mrs. P. B. Ray, Oakpark, Ill.; Arthur
S. Ray, of Chicago; W. D. Ray, Detroit, Michigan; W. A. Ray, Grand Rapids, Michigan; Miss Lily J. Ray, Washington, D. C. The value of the Honolulu portion of the estate is given at $750.

KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM

Or Your Hair Will Fall Out Till You Become Bald.

Modern science has discovered that dandruff is caused by a germ that digs up the scalp in scales, as it burrows down to the root of the hair, where it destroys the hair's vitality, causing falling hair, and, ultimately, baldness.
After Prof. Unna of Hamburg, Germany, discovered the dandruff germ, all efforts to find a remedy failed until the great laboratory discovery was made which resulted in Newbro's Herpicide.
It alone of all other hair preparations kills the dandruff germ. Without dandruff, hair grows luxuriantly. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

BISHOP MUSEUM IS EXCEPTED

It May Import Animals and Birds Not of the Noxious Kind.

Collector of the Port E. R. Stackable has received the following letter from the Treasury Department regarding the importation of wild animals and birds:

Treasury Department, Office of Secretary, Washington, October 8, 1901.
The Collector of Customs, Honolulu, Hawaii:

Sir: Referring to the regulations of this department, of July 23 (T. D., 22316) and August 24, 1900 (T. D., 22458), in regard to the importation and inspection of wild animals and birds under the act approved May 25, 1900, I have to inform you that, pending the appointment of a special inspector for your district, the Secretary of Agriculture has issued a provisional permit, expiring January 1, 1902, to Mr. W. F.
Brigham, director of the Bishop Museum, which you are hereby authorized to recognize, subject to the condition that, in the case of each importation by said museum, you shall satisfy yourself that the animals and birds so imported are not of the noxious variety within the meaning of the act. Respectfully,
O. L. SPAULDING,
Acting Secretary.
